

Mr. Mario Paz López is a lawyer specializing in corporate, financial, and securities law. He is currently a Senior Associate Lawyer (Consultant) at BCA, where he advises on mergers and acquisitions, contract review, and investment fund regulations. Previously, he worked as an in-house lawyer at Finexpar SAECA, providing legal counsel on credit operations and regulatory compliance.

He has also served as an external legal advisor for Hands-On B.V. (“Lendahand”), focusing on renewable energy financing and European investment regulations. He has worked at prestigious law firms such as Ferrere Abogados, Rubin Cymerman, and ZAFER, drafting financial contracts and advising on banking and fintech law.

Additionally, he worked as a Reporter at the Fourth Chamber of the Civil and Commercial Court of Appeals for eight years, drafting rulings and interlocutory orders. He also worked at Banco Amambay S.A., analyzing financial risks.

In academia, he is a professor at Universidad del Norte and has participated in international arbitration competitions in Vienna. He holds an LLM in International Banking Law and Finance from the University of Edinburgh. He has published articles on fintech regulation and actively participates in industry organizations such as the Paraguay-Chile Chamber of Commerce and the Paraguayan Fintech Chamber. He is fluent in Spanish, English, Portuguese, and has basic proficiency in German.